

Mrs. Littell, 63, Served With CIA

Mrs. William T. Littell, 63, a retired Central Intelligence Agency secretary, died Sunday at her home at 5161 MacArthur Blvd. NW.

Born in Atlantic City, Mrs. Littell was graduated from the Academy of Notre Dame in Baltimore.

She frequently performed as a harpist on various radio programs and as a church soloist with that instrument in New York.

Mrs. Littell moved to Washington in 1954 and joined the CIA. She retired about four years ago.

She wrote short stories and was editor of the Banner, the publication of Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church.

She was the former Mary Cecelia Brubaker. She leaves her husband, of the home; two sisters, Mrs. J. V. Lane of Columbus, Ohio, and Mrs. L. L. Pitcaithly of Miami; a brother, John W. Brubaker of New York, and three nephews.

Services were to be at 10 a.m. today at Our Lady of Victory Catholic Church, 4835 MacArthur Blvd. NW., with burial in Gate of Heaven Cemetery.